COMPLAINTS HANDLING PROCEDURE

Steps for Managing Complaints

No.	Person/s Responsible	Steps to Take
1	Complainant	(1) Attempt informal resolution with relevant staff (e.g., trainer or Student Services). The trainer / Student Services will work with the VET student to try and resolve the issue promptly and informally. (2) If unresolved, complete the Complaints Lodgment Form available via the website or through any RTO staff.
2	Student Services / Complaints Officer	(1) Acknowledge receipt of the formal complaint in writing within 5 working days and provide information about expected timeframes. Update the Complaints Register. Forward the complaint to the appropriate personnel (Training Manager or CEO).
3	Training Manager	(1) Investigate the complaint within 30 days (2) Interview relevant parties privately.

		(3) Review all documentation and gather additional evidence if necessary. (4) Maintain procedural fairness by ensuring both the complainant and respondent can present their case. (5) Facilitate resolution through mediation if appropriate.
4	Training Manager	(1) Communicate the outcome to the complainant, ensuring a written explanation is provided. If the complaint will take longer than 30 days, provide regular updates on progress and expected completion timelines.
5	Student Services / Complaints Officer	(1) Record the complaint outcome in the Complaints Register. Where corrective actions are required, document them in the Continuous Improvement Register and ensure follow-up. Close the complaint once all actions are completed.
6	Training Manager	(1) If the complainant is dissatisfied, inform them of their right to an external review by a third party. Provide information on available options, such as the Training Ombudsman or other relevant bodies.
